An Abstract of Kules and Iviervou the Settlement, Preservation, and good Government of LENDIN LIBRARIES in W. A LiE'S rod , and should loais

HE Methods for Settling the Libraries; viz. The Bishops who were pleased to concern'd in this Affair, having Approved the Books for a Library, Their Lore Ih.ps, by aDeed of Trust, assign over the Books to Persons of Ability and Integrity, ne Inhabiting; who are Intrusted with the Care of all matters relating to the Library.

For Safe Keeping the Books, strong wooden Presses are provided, lock'd up, and de tis Proposed, posired in the Church, Vestry, or Minister's House, &c.

The Library Keeper, before his Admission, is to Sign and Seal a Deed to the Trustees, for Preserving the Books; as also for Observing the Rules of Lending,

And that the Books shall be Re-delivered upon his Death or Removal.

He is also, by himself or Deputy, to attend each Market-day in the Morning, from Ten to Twelve a Clock: And to Enter-down all Books lent out, and returned, the Times when, the several Sums deposited by Borrowers, with their Names. An Account of which is to be kept in a Book, and laid before the Trustees at their several Visitation

The Rules for Lending; viz. The Books are not to be Lent to Persons living above Ten Miles from the Library : Nor to any but Clergy-Men, School-Masters, and the Trufrees: Or to fuch who have been Contributors, to the Value of Ten shillings in Money ias, The late Sp. Beveridge's Sermons upon the or Books.

Books in Folio are not to be lent for more than Two Months ar a time: And less

Volumes not longer than a Month and dilibert sold in the Books, both in the English and Anno Manual Property and Anno Man

No Person is to Borrow more than Two Books at one Time: Except such who defire to Furnish themselves with Materials towards publishing some Useful Book who may Borrow Six Books for a Time, not exceeding Four Months; having first Engaged to give a Printed Copy of such Book well Bound, so soon as published.

For Securing the Return of Books Lent; The Borrower is to leave Money as a Plede in the Hands of the Library-Keeper, according to the Value incerted on the Tit Page of each Book, which is to be at least one fourth part more than the true Va The Borrower is also to sign a Note, to Return the Books Undamage within the Times Limited: Or to forfeit the Money Deposited. And if Disputes 2 rise about any Damage done to Books, the Matter is to be determined by three Trustees.

To prevent Imbezelment; The following Words are to be written on the Title Page, as also on the three first Leaves of each Book; viz. This Book belongs to the Lending Library of in the County of

A Catalogue of all the Books, (with their respective Values,) is to be kept in the Library in a Register; In which are also to be Inserted, all new Books Given or Bought; the respective Sums of Money Given or Forseited, the Times when, and Persons Names. One fair Copy whereof, with the Additions from time to time, is to be lodged with the Bishop of the Diocess; and another in the Chest belonging to the Parish Church.

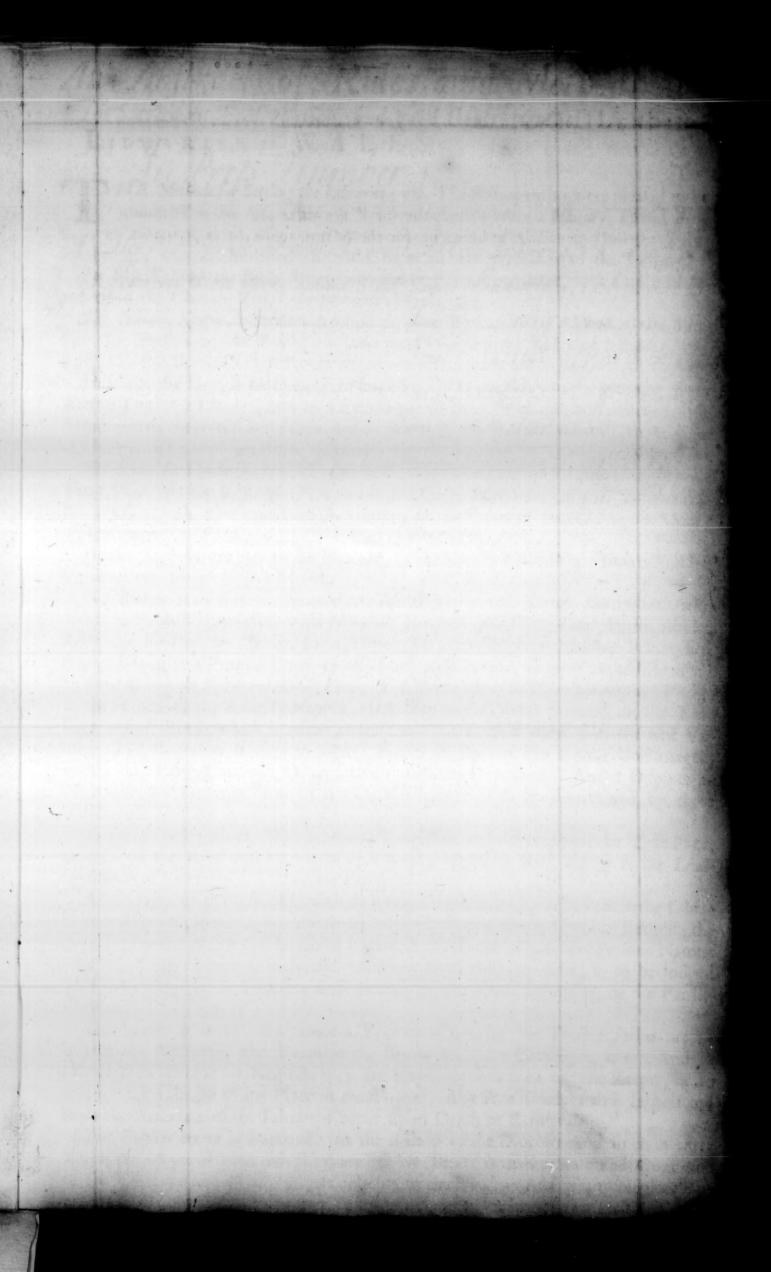

The Library is to be Visited, once a Year or oftner, by the Trustees, who are to Inspect the Accounts, and Examine the Books with the Catalogue, Ge. And in case of Imbezelment or Neglect, they are Impowered to turn out the Keeper, or to remove the Library to any Place in the Town. Any Five Trustees may Inspect and settle the Accounts of the Library-Keeper upon Death or Removal.

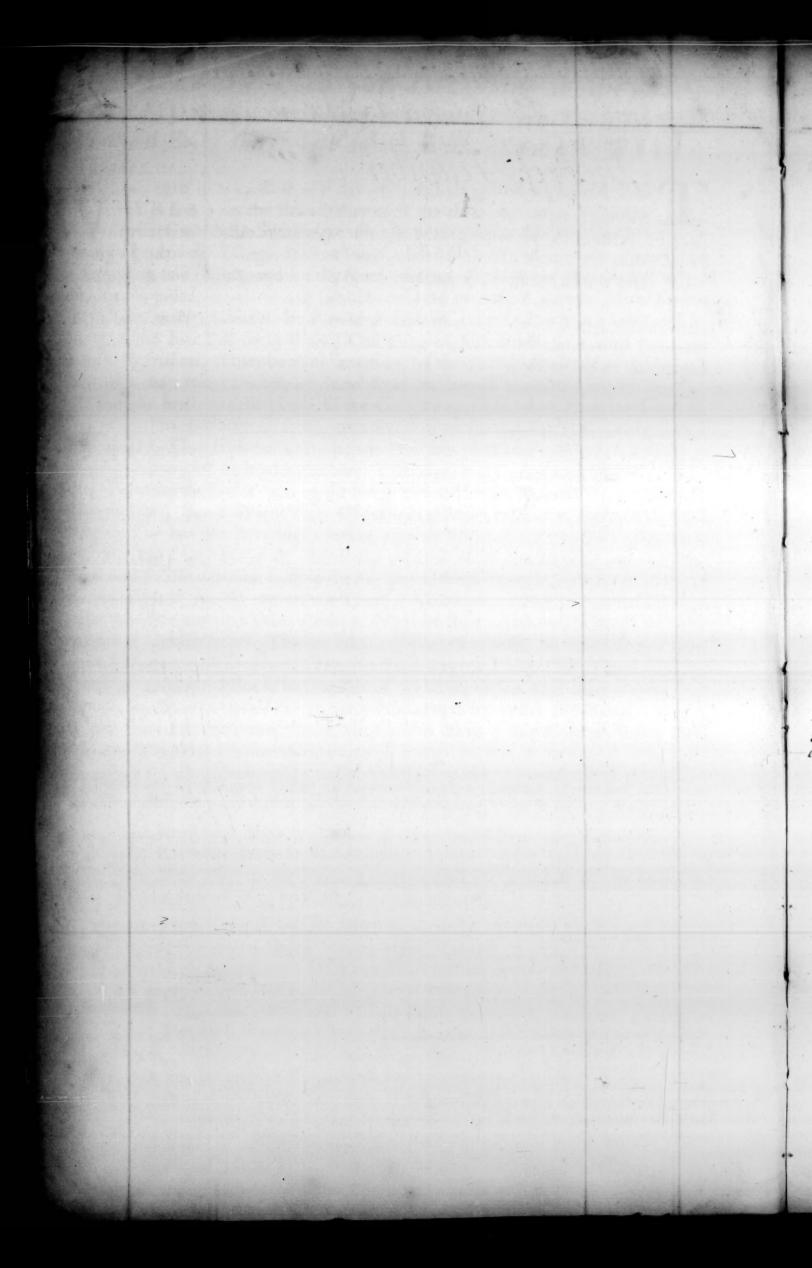

The Trustees are to be accountable to the Bishop of the Diocess: And once in three Years, or oftner if required, they are to lay before him the State and Condition of the Library; and of all Matters relating to the Trust. And if any Neglect appears, the Bishop may cause them to assign over the Books, &c. to such Persons he shall appoint.

For Perpetuating the Trust; It is provided, That whenever the Acting Trustees reduced to Three; they are to Choose New Ones; by which means there will be always a competent Number of Trustees for managing the Trust.
